Computer, E-Mail, and Internet Use Agreement

Each school year, every student and his/her parent/legal guardian will be required to sign this "Student Computer Use Agreement". This Agreement is for the 2011-2012 school year.

Computer use is a valuable resource for a student's education. Student use of the School's computer system is a privilege and not a right, which may be authorized as well as withdrawn. Although student use of the computer system at school will be supervised by school staff, the School cannot guarantee that students will not gain access to inappropriate material. The School encourages parents/legal guardians to have a discussion with their children about values and how those beliefs should guide student activities while using the School's computers, networks, e-mail services, and Internet access. Use of the School computers, networks, e-mail services, and Internet access is subject to the terms and conditions of this agreement, which includes, but is not limited to, the following:

1. Student Personal Safety

- a. Students may use school e-mail services and Internet access only for teacher-directed educational activities; no personal use of any kind is permitted.
- b. When using the school's e-mail services and Internet access, students should not disclose personal information such as home addresses, home telephone numbers, social security numbers, etc.
- c. Students may use school e-mail services and Internet access only when authorized and supervised.

2. Prohibited Activities

- a. Students shall not attempt to bypass the School's e-mail and/or Internet filtering systems and features.
- b. Students shall not use the School's computer system to engage in any illegal activities, such as: harassment; discrimination; defamation; threatening or violent communications and behavior; infringement of copyright or trademark laws; offering for sale, purchase, or use of any prohibited or illegal substances; etc.
- c. Students shall not damage or disrupt the School's computer system.
- d. Students shall not gain, or attempt to gain, unauthorized access to other computers, Internet sites, computer systems, or user accounts.
- e. Students shall not plagiarize works or violate copyright or trademark laws.

3. Inappropriate Conduct:

The following are prohibited in public or private communications or any posted messages or any files.

- a. Any inappropriate communications with other students or anyone else that is obscene, profane, lewd, vulgar, belligerent, inflammatory, or threatening.
- b. Potentially damaging, dangerous, or disruptive material.
- c. Personal or generalized attacks or harassment.
- d. False or defamatory information.

4. Inappropriate Access to Material:

- a. The School's computer system shall not be used to access material that is obscene, pornographic, sexually explicit, sexually suggestive, harmful, or otherwise inappropriate.
- b. Inadvertent inappropriate access should be promptly reported to the student's teacher or to the Administration.

5. No Expectation of Privacy:

Students have no expectation of privacy in files, disks, documents, etc., which have been created in, entered in, stored in, downloaded from, or used on the School's computer system.

6. Violations and Discipline:

- a. In the event there is an allegation that a student has violated this agreement, the student will receive notice of the alleged violation and an opportunity to present an explanation.
- b. In the event of a violation of this agreement, appropriate disciplinary action may be taken in accordance with established school policies and administrative procedures, including losing computer use privileges, suspension, and expulsion.

I acknowledge that I have read and understood the terms and conditions of this Agreement, Computer, E-Mail, and Internet Use, and hereby agree to abide by and comply with all of the said terms and conditions.
